

Code of Ethics

- As an employee of JHSNI I commit myself to fulfill to the best of my ability the following obligations:
- I will regard the well-being of the people I serve as my primary professional obligation.
- I will fulfill my obligations and responsibilities with integrity.
- I will be competent in the performance of the services and functions I undertake on behalf of the people I serve.
- I will act in a conscientious, diligent and efficient manner.
- I will respect the intrinsic worth of persons I serve in my professional relationships with them.
- I will respect the intrinsic worth of all JHSNI employees and will work towards building a positive team environment. I will communicate appropriately and effectively with my colleagues – managers and staff.
- I will protect the confidentiality of all professionally acquired information. I will disclose such information only when properly authorized to do so or when obligated legally or professionally.
- I will ensure that my outside interests, including other employment, do not jeopardize my professional judgment, independence or competence.
- I will work for the creation and maintenance of workplace standards and policies consistent with the standards of practice set by this code.
- I will act to promote excellence in practice within JHSNI.
- Within the mandate of the Society, I will act to effect social change for the overall benefit of the community.

See the Employee Handbook for the Interpretation of the Code of Ethics.